

What is HandiFox?

HandiFox is an award-winning mobile inventory tracking and sales management software solution handling most of the problems SMBs face while managing day-to-day warehouse and sales operations.

HandiFox serves the needs of retailers, wholesalers and distributors across many industries.

Above all HandiFox clients get:

- 30 days of free trial
- Compatibility with a wide range of data collection hardware
- Industry-awarded support

Contact Us

200 S Harbor City Blvd
Suite 301, Melbourne, FL 32901

☎ +1-877-942-6343

✉ sales@handifox.com

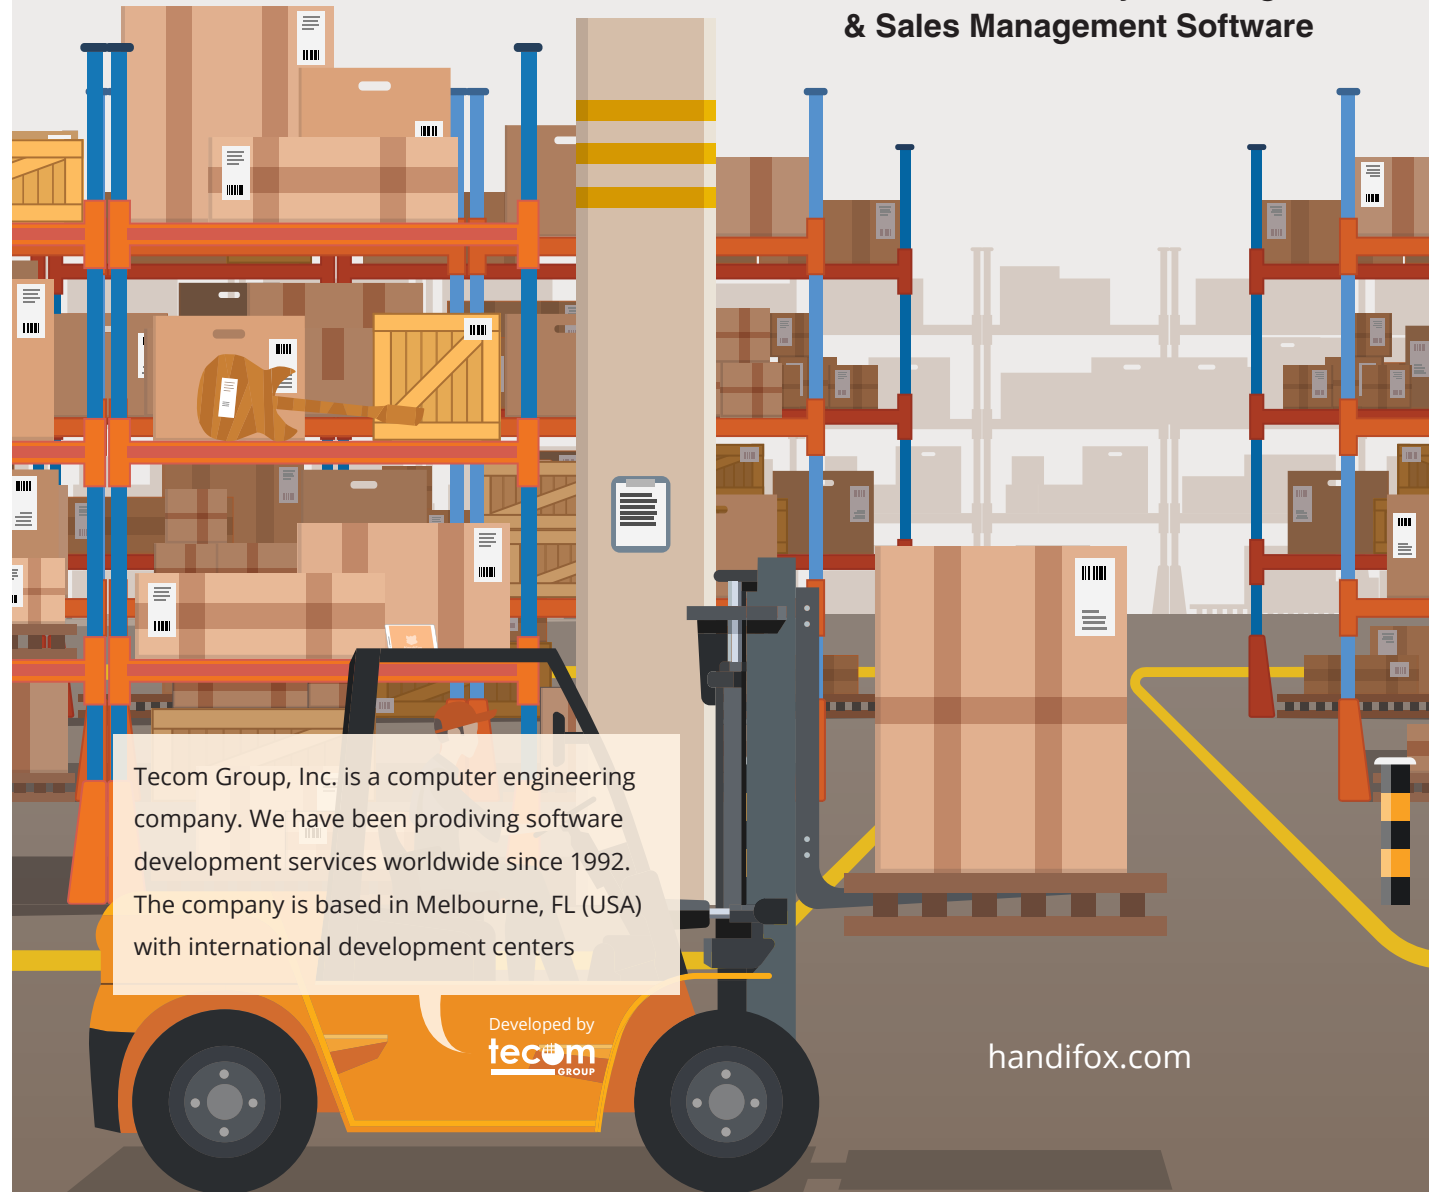

🔍 handifox.com

🔍 handifox.online

HandiFox

Mobile Inventory Tracking
& Sales Management Software

Tecom Group, Inc. is a computer engineering company. We have been providing software development services worldwide since 1992. The company is based in Melbourne, FL (USA) with international development centers

Developed by tecom
GROUP

handifox.com

HandiFox Desktop

Designed for intuit
quickbooks

Incredibly mobile desktop application for inventory control and sales management beyond the office

- real-time updates via Internet-connected devices
- barcode-driven inventory control
- automated replenishment
- multi-location tracking
- counting
- inventory assembly building
- customer order management
- picking & packing
- serial/lot number tracking
- mobile field sales
- printing on the go

Designed for
intuit
quickbooks
Online

HandiFox Online

Tracking, managing and selling inventory spread across multiple locations from any device and country around the globe

- A lightweight yet feature-heavy inventory system giving you no technical headaches
- All features are available through a web browser or the mobile app

HandiFox Standalone

A centralized view and full control of stock with no ties to accounting software

- Ideal for inventory-centric businesses with global operations thanks to configurable taxes and currencies
- Inventory and sales data that is easy to repurpose for accounting and reporting

